DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
2. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Prindle (4,317,284). Prindle teaches a kitchen utensil comprising a handle and a tool for handling food products. The kitchen utensil is one single piece of plate-like material and is capable of using for barbecue. The utensil can be arranged with their handles in stacking conditions so as to form a compact unity of the kitchen utensil set. See Figs. 1-5. Prindle also teaches that the utensil may be made of stainless steel or synthetic polymer plastic. See col. 3, lines 10-15.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Garabedian (5,572,792), Kelly (4,969,268), Begley et al. (Des. 432,875), Loechel et al. (5,054,835) and Walde (5,934,721) teach utensils of general interest.
